Artist Agreement

- a. Contest. By participating in this contest, the Artist is bound by the contest rules and this agreement. All decisions of HHNA are final in all matters regarding the contest. The selection of the winner of this contest is done subjectively and by a judging panel, all at HHNA's sole discretion. HHNA has the right to cancel the contest for any reason.
- b. Original Design. The Artist warrants that the submitted design is original and does not infringe on any other person's copyright, rights in trade or service marks.
- c. Source Files. If the Artist is a finalist, the Artist will provide to HHNA the source files (including electronic files, if any) for the submitted design.
- d. Winning Design. If the design submitted by the Artist is the winning design, then the following apply:
 - a. The Artist irrevocably and unconditionally transfers and assigns all ownership and rights to HHNA for the winning design. The Artist agrees to sign all documents or take such other actions as reasonably required by HHNA to confirm the complete transfer of ownership and rights.
 - b. The winning design in every respect is the property of HHNA. The Artist retains no ownership or rights in the winning design. HHNA may modify the winning design at HHNA's sole discretion. The winning design may be used on various HHNA signs, documents, and other materials and in all types of media.

- c. The Artist may display the winning design in the Artist's portfolio, resume or personal promotional materials.
- d. HHNA will pay the winning Artist $100 and a one year honorary membership to the Huntley Hills Neighborhood Association for the 2016/2017 year ($20 value) as complete payment for the winning design.
- e. No Return of Design or Materials. Regardless of whether a design is the winner or not, HHNA has no obligation to return to the Artist any submitted design or any materials associated with the design.

This Agreement must be signed by the Artist. If the Artist is not 18 years old, the Agreement must be signed by the Artist's legal guardian.
